

What is parental control service?

It is an additional service that allows subscribers to filter websites according to their preference through a dedicated web page for the service.

What are the features of the service?

Ability to enable/disable filtering as deemed appropriate by the subscriber and whenever desired. Blocking/allowing websites based on their classification, as the service categorizes websites into approximately 50 types. Ability to create blacklists.

How can I use the parental control on the internet?

Open website aman.paltel.ps and manage the service.

It is possible to block social media sites through the parental control service?

Open website aman.paltel.ps and activate allow list to block social media channels